A Conversation with
Robyn Davidson and Raimond Gaita

Maryborough
Railway Station

Sunday
April 2, 2pm

One of Central Victoria's loveliest and most handsome buildings, Maryborough Railway Station is the superb venue for On Track, a series of lively conversations with writers.

In the elegant Gallery space of the restored Railway Café, this Bendigo Writers Festival On Track event features two of Australia's most admired memoir writers and social commentators, Robyn Davidson and Raimond Gaita.

Robyn Davidson is a writer and traveller, the author of Tracks, about her 1700 kilometre solo walk across the desert.

Philosopher Raimond Gaita is author of Romulus, My Father, about his childhood in Central Victoria.
